WOMEN JUMPED FROM WINDOW

To Escape Death in a Bad Fire at York

Fred Norton's House Burned --Two People in Hospital

Four people narrowly escaped death at three o'clock this morning in a fire which totally destroyed the residence of Fred Norton at Cider Hill, York.

The fire, which started in the cellar, was not discovered until the flames had burned the cellar stairs and was fast eating its way through the hallway.

At the time the house contained four inmates, including Mr. Norton and wife, his aged mother and his daughter, Elsie.

Mr. Norton was the first to be awakened by the smoke and flames, which nearly blinded him as he came from his room to the hall. Realizing the situation he acted quickly, and went back to the rescue of his mother.

Rushed Through Flames

The only means of escape was to rush through the flames or jump from a second story window.

His mother is nearly seventy years of age, and a jump from the window was as good as death. Norton covered her as well as he could and they both rushed through the flames. They were badly burned, and are now at the York hospital and their condition is reported as serious.

Daughter and Wife Jump

Norton, with his cloth nearly burned off, attempted to get back in the burning house to save his wife and daughter, but was too weak to do so. At this point the two women, finding no relief coming, jumped from the second story and escaped with slight injuries. Everything was lost, including nearly $100 in money which the daughter left in her room. The cause of the fire at this time is not fully known, but it is thought to have started from the chimney.

KITTERY LETTER

Wm. Dean Howells Arrived

Children's Sunday is to be Tomorrow

Cribbage Results at Yacht Club Games

A Daughter Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chick at North Kittery

Kittery, Me., June 11.

Kittery correspondent's telephone 295-5.

Children's Sunday will be observed in most of the local churches and also in the Portsmouth ones. The Second Christian church will also hold its graduation for the primary scholars. Friends are cordially invited.

Mr. Fremont Allen of South Berwick has been a recent visitor in town.

A meeting of the members of the Yacht club was held at their club house on Thursday evening.

Engraved commencement invitations were issued today by the Seniors of Traip Academy.

Rev. Joseph R. Laird of Camden, Me., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. Sumner Paul. Mr. Laird, who is a former pastor of the Second Christian church here, will preach at the Second Methodist church vespers service, at five o'clock Sunday afternoon. He will preach at the Second Christian church in the morning. He is now pastor of the Methodist church at Camden.

Mr. M. Buell of the Eagle has rejoined his wife, who occupies the Rose cottage at the Intervene.

Mrs. Hadlie Wentworth of Government street is visiting in Malden.

Even in spite of the unfavorable weather, many summer boarders are coming.

Mrs. Walter Hoyt is in town, called here by the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Octavia Remick.

At the weekly cribbage meeting at the Yacht club, the following won the prizes: First, Mr. Bailey; second, Mr. Billings; third, Mr. Goodrich.

There are a number of week-end visitors in town, Walter Donnell, Harlow Paul and Harry Sherburne.

The ushers for the high school reception have been appointed: Messrs. Fred Pray, Nelson Webber, Harlow Paul and Ernest Emery. Ralph Baker of Kittery Point was chosen as class marshal.

Rehearsals for graduation are now scheduled for next week.

Kittery Point

Kittery Point correspondent's telephone 295-5.

Mrs. Ellen Frisbee returned home last night after a few days' visit.

Miss Nellie Lewis of Portsmouth visited her grandmother, Mrs. Noah Emory on Thursday.

Guests from Washington, D. C., are expected at the Parkfield today.

Mrs. Moses Randall of Tenney's Hill is severely ill.

Mrs. George F. Parker of New Castle is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dorr.

Mr. Morton Seaward is reported as resting comfortably.

Mr. George E. Bliss is the guest of Mrs. Mabelle L. Coes and family for the week-end.

A meeting of the Teachers' Association was held at the Horace Mitchell school on Friday.

Mrs. Ellis, whose husband was forty years ago the pastor of the Congregational church, has returned home after a week's visit with Mrs. E. A. Billings.

William Dean Howells accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mildred, have arrived and opened their summer cottage. Mr. Howells leaves soon for England, and his sisters are to occupy his house here during his absence.

Hotel Champernowne will open June 15th for the season.

Captain T. Burton Hoyt, who has made extensive repairs on his house and added an ell, has completed it. It certainly is a great improvement and makes it a practically new home.

Mrs. Langdon Williams of York Harbor will be registered at the Parkfield hotel on Monday for the season.

North Kittery

A daughter was born on Friday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Perley Chick at North Kittery.

The residence of Owen E. Pettigrew has met with such a change one would hardly know it. Not only outside but inside as well has the change been made. Not only has the house been changed, but the personnel will in some respects be changed by the taking to the old home of one of Kittery's brightest young ladies to assist in its management.

A. Stevenson met with a loss Saturday by the sudden death of his one mare Daisy. She was raised by him and had been a pet of the family and of all the children living near Mr. Stevenson's home. She was a fine driver and always acted right under all conditions. She was 18 years old but always acted like a young colt.

Mrs. Grace Thomas is ill at her home.

Joys Of Summer

Emphasized In The Display Of Outdoor Furniture

For the piazza—a large and attractive selection of material and tinted Willow, German Reed, Maple and Rush pieces, each designed for tranquility and repose. For the lawn and paths—in readiness to put into place when the call of summer color and breeze beckons you to the shady open air:

Swings, Hammocks, Settees and Rustic chairs

Variety was never so large—prices never so small

Old Hickory rustic furniture. Arm Chairs $2.50 and settees at $5 Cane and Maple porch furniture begins at $2.50 for a comfy rocker. Willow furniture—an arm chair as low as $3.

Painted lawn swings in pleasing colors at $1. Fibre rush furniture, chairs begin at $7.50. Reed furniture from $3.50 for a small chair, and other proportionate prices for very choice pieces.

You can enjoy the outdoor furniture more frequently if you have a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet.

being especially interesting. From what I have learned from private sources, the literary exercises, as being arranged by ex-Mayor Hackett, for the forthcoming celebration will be an interesting feature and some noted speakers will be heard. The list will include Gen. Theodore Bingham, an ex-police commissioner of New York, Rev. James DeNormandie of Boston, for many years pastor of the Unitarian church in this city, Governor Henry B. Quimby of New Hampshire, ex-Assistant Secretary of the Navy Frank W. Hackett, of Washington, ex-Mayor Thomas E. O. Marvin of Boston, Judge Edwin C. Stimpson of Denver, Colorado. Judge Stimpson, or "Cad" Stimpson as he was familiarly known when a school boy, is one of the few Portsmouth boys that went west, and has made good. That his old schoolmates will be pleased to see and hear him after years of absence, from his native place, there can be no question. Prominent local speakers will also be heard, and we have some in our midst that we can be justly proud of, but then they sometimes have to go away from home to have their talents appreciated.

What a contrast! The kitchen no longer is stifling hot, the work is now done with comfort, and the housewife is not worn out with the heat.

She saves her strength, keeps her health and is better able to enjoy the summer.

The New Perfection does everything that any other stove can do—all the family cooking, baking, washing and ironing. No smoke, no dust, no odor. Heat is applied directly and not wasted. A turn, and the flame is out.

The New Perfection stove has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot, drop shelves for the coffee pot or saucepans, and nicked towel racks.

It has long, turquoise-blue enamel chimneys. The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove very attractive and invites cleanliness. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

WANTS TO STAY ON SHILOH SHIP

Sarah Josephs Goes Back of Her Own Free Will

RAID IS MADE BY SHERIFF

Inspired by Stories Told by Mrs. Whitaker to Ex-Holy Ghoster, Who Declares That Syrian Woman Is Hypnotized—One Who Escaped Says Path of Sandfordism Is Strewn With Wreckage of Families

Boston, June 11.—Sarah Josephs, the Syrian woman who was taken off the barkentine Kingdom yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus, slept there again last night, going back to the ship of her own free will.

To-day was inspired by stories told by Mrs. Florence A. Whitaker, Judge Sheldon of the supreme court, who had granted the writ, ordered the girl released when she expressed a desire to stay with the Sandford colony.

To Rev. N. H. Harriman, himself an ex-Holy Ghoster, Mrs. Whitaker, who, with her four children, was rescued from the Kingdom in Casco bay, had said that the Syrian girl was anxious to get free of the ship in order to return to her brother in Cincinnati. Harriman, on learning this, immediately secured a writ of habeas corpus and made a descent on the Kingdom, which has been at anchor in lower Boston harbor.

He insists that the girl is hypnotized, that she replied to Judge Sherman's questions as she was forced to by the influence exerted over her by the leaders on the boat.

The raiding party went down the harbor on the tug Pallas about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They steamed to the Kingdom, made fast to the side of the barkentine and boarded her. No resistance was offered.

On deck they were met by Captain Perry. Their errand was explained to him. "Don't go below," he said to Sheriff Silbey. "I will produce the girl."

Perry went below, carefully closing the companionway behind him. Then ensued a wait of at least a half an hour. Meanwhile the crew of the Pallas, which was tied alongside, tried to steal a view of the between decks of the ship through the port-holes.

Thin hands, the bones showing through the emaciated flesh, pulled curtains over these parts, shutting off even these chance glimpses of the interior of the ship. Finally Perry appeared on deck with Miss Josephs.

The Kingdom carries a crew of ten seamen, besides the captain. They are all converts to the religion of the "prophet," but a capable seaman, picked up in the seaport towns of New England.

Miss Josephs is 23 years old, very attractive. Miss away from all relatives, in a ship off a foreign coast, she is completely under the influence of the sect she joined when only 17 years old, according to Mrs. Whitaker.

On the trail of the Coronet, a third which "Eljah" Sandford is supposed to be, is a posse of sheriffs armed with writs of attachment to $50,000 suits, brought by Mrs. Whitaker against the "Prophet."

Yesterday a heavy fog made the chase ineffective. The motor boat in which the posse are seeking the Coronet was unable to thoroughly cover even Portland harbor, and Casco bay, which alone offer a thousand hiding places for the yacht.

Mrs. Whitaker is also seeking rescue for Edith McIntyre, the daughter of a Massachusetts merchant, who is at Shiloh, according to Mrs. Whitaker, under duress.

"The history of Sandfordism," said Mrs. Whitaker, "is one of unhappiness, and its path is strewn with the wreckage of families which were happy until they came into contact with Sandford."

"Shiloh is a colony of wrecks. A colony of emaciated, half starved, half sick men and women. They pass that condition along to their next generation. The babies born in Shiloh are weak and undersized from their very birth. Think of it! They are born famished!"

ACTION AGAINST THE OWLS

Said to Be Doing Business in Bay State Without Permission

Boston, June 11.—Attorney General Malone, the request of Insurance Commissioner Hardison, has brought suit in the supreme court against the Order of Owls, whose home nest is in South Bend, Ind., and which has local nests in Massachusetts, for an injunction to restrain them from transacting business in this commonwealth.

The order is claimed to be doing business here without the permission of the insurance commissioner. Judge Sherman issued an order returnable June 21.

GOVERNOR MARSHALL

He Displaces Taggart, by Whom He Was "Discovered"

MARSHALL IN THE LEAD

Other Big Democrats in the Hoosier State Are Sidelined

Indianapolis, June 11.—Governor Marshall is to be the leading figure in the coming Democratic campaign of Indiana. All of the other lights of the Democratic party, including Senator Shively, John W. Kern and Thomas Taggart, will be compelled to play second fiddle.

It is largely the governor's personal popularity that places him at the head of the party. Three years ago he was a country lawyer in a small country town. He was nominated when in the convention the Taggart element went to him, not because he was their choice, but because they had to do it to prevent the nomination of a candidate who was highly objectionable. And so it is that Taggart is now pushed out of first place in the political arena by a man who might still be a country lawyer had it not been for Taggart's strength in the state convention two years ago.

RIVET IS SENTENCED TO ELECTRIC CHAIR

Must Die Next Month For Murder Committed in Lowell

Cambridge, Mass., June 11.—Napoleon J. Rivet of Lowell, who was convicted of murder in the first degree, was sentenced by Judge Harrison to death by electricity at the Charles-town state prison some time in the week beginning July 24, for the murder of Joseph J. Galloux. Rivet smiled as he heard the sentence read to him in the courtroom.

The crime for which Rivet was sentenced to die was committed at Lowell. Galloux, whose life had been insured for the benefit of Rivet, was probably killed by being struck over the head with a piece of gas pipe. The murderer then poured muriatic acid down the throat of his victim and left the gas cocks open in the room in which the murder was committed.

NO HELP FOR HAMMERSTEIN

Government Will Take No Action in the Russian Incident

Washington, June 11.—Refusal of the Russian minister of the interior to accept Oscar Hammerstein's passport and permit him to carry out his proposed Russian trip, has been communicated to the state department. The American embassy at St. Petersburg has cabled a brief summary of the case and has asked for instructions.

The state department regrets the incident, as there has been a consistent plan for some time looking to more favorable treatment for American Hebrews in Russia and in countries where there is discrimination against them.

But the difficulty of the problem is that the discrimination in this and similar cases is against the individuals because of their Hebrew origin and not because of their American citizenship. The department will take no action in Hammerstein's case.

GREELEY FORTY YEARS OLD

Celebration of Town Founded on the "Go West" Suggestion

Greeley, Col., June 11.—Greeley, the concrete result of Horace Greeley's advice, "Go west, young man, go west," is celebrating the fortieth anniversary of its founding.

The town, now a prosperous city of 15,000 population, sprang from the desire of Horace Greeley and N. C. Meeker of New York and others to found a temperance community in the west, which resulted in the organization of Union Colony in New York in December, 1870. Two hundred of the pioneers of 1870 are still residents of Greeley.

Not Guilty of Slaying
Boston, June 11.—Henry J. Levey, who was indicted on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Daniel F. J. Donovan, a police officer, was found not guilty by the jury which heard the evidence.

TAFT'S SNUB TO HARRISON

It Is Regarded as Unfortunate For Administration

A WAIT OF FORTY MINUTES

Representative Was Then Told That President Would Not Receive Him—Says It Is "Unfortunate For the Country That President Cannot Stand Truth"—Had Made Appointment Previously For the Meeting

Washington, June 11.—Representative Francis B. Harrison of New York, who was refused permission to see the president when he called with a delegation of constituents, has decided that he will not attempt to bring the presidential slight to the attention of the house by rising to a question of personal privilege upon the floor.

According to Harrison, who issued a statement concerning the White House affair, the incident is now closed so far as he is concerned. At first Harrison and some of his colleagues favored the plan of bringing the White House episode to the attention of the house, if such a procedure were possible under the rules. After a careful perusal of the rules, however, some of the Democratic parliamentarians of the house decided that such a course would be ineffectual.

The principal reason for this is that although Harrison's resolution of inquiry concerning the Lawler memorandum in the Ballinger-Pinchot case is a matter of house record, the Harrison interview, which also offended the president, is not.

Inasmuch as Harrison did not make upon the floor of the house the statement in which he charged the president and the attorney general with attempting to mislead congress as to the date of this now famous memorandum, it is not seen how the house can take cognizance of the president's displeasure. Some of those familiar with the house rules say that there is no possible way in which Harrison can inject the matter of personal privilege, under the circumstances. The question at first raised by Harrison was that the president had a right to decline to receive him as representative, no matter what the president's personal feelings might be.

On the other hand, Harrison and his friends have come to the conclusion that the statement issued by Harrison pretty well disposes of the matter, and that it is now not Harrison's move. For that reason Harrison has resolved to let the matter drop.

Representative Harrison made the statement: "It is unfortunate for the president that he cannot stand criticism; it is unfortunate for the country that I cannot stand the truth. My newspaper statement at which he takes offense was merely an exposition of the scandalous fact that the president has sent to the senate of the United States an official document in the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy of which the date has been wilfully falsified by being predated. My resolution of inquiry drew out this information in a written confession by the attorney general."

"It is of no concern to me that I am not welcome at the White House but it is of concern to every American citizen that a statement of the truth about the president may render it impossible for a representative to discharge his duties. I went to the White House, not as a matter of pleasure but in the execution of a public duty. I went by appointment made with the presidential office on May 31."

"After a delay of forty minutes the very door of the president's office was told that the president would not receive me. It is not surprising that he did not care to meet face to face any one who was instrumental in bringing to light the desperate attempt to bolster the administrative case in the Ballinger-Pinchot matter by manipulating public documents. I every one who is justly criticizing the Taft administration is to be barred from the White House it will become a lonely place."

The Harrison-White House incident is regarded here as being rather unfortunate so far as its effect relative to the administration. The action of the president is thought to have been impulsive, and the manner in which the affair was handled at the White House is deemed tactless, to say the least.

Representative Harrison feels especial resentment that the president did not notify him in advance that he was persona non grata, thus avoiding humiliation in the presence of his delegation.

Solons' Labors Nearly Ended
Boston, June 11.—Speaker Walker announced to the house that after consultation with President Treadway of the senate it had been decided that the legislature would be prorogued on June 15.

STROLLS IN UNDERWEAR

Somnambulist Wrapped in Police Coat and Taken to Hospital

New York, June 11.—While in a state of somnambulism and attired only in a suit of underwear, William Horn, 32 years old, walked a mile in a driving rain before he was intercepted by a policeman.

Horn was heading for Twenty-third street in Fourth avenue when Policeman King held him up. At that time Horn was seemingly oblivious of his surroundings or his scanty attire. King took off his police coat and, after putting it around the man, called Dr. Fitzgerald from Bellevue hospital. Horn was removed there.

Under treatment administered by Fitzgerald, Horn was aroused from his somnambulist state. He said he had no recollection of what had occurred. He had no idea that he was out of bed.

From an investigation made it is believed that while Horn was insensible to his actions he walked from his home. Horn suffered from exposure, but was well enough last night to return home.

TWO CONVICTIONS IN SUGAR TRUST TRIAL

Helke and Gerbracht Are Declared Guilty of Conspiracy

New York, June 11.—Charles R. Helke, secretary of the American Sugar Refining company, was convicted last night on one count of an indictment charging conspiracy to defraud the government of customs dues on sugar.

Ernest W. Gerbracht, former superintendent of the Williamsburg (Brooklyn) refinery, was convicted on all six counts.

For James F. Bendoragel, former cashier of the refinery, the jury stood 7 to 5 for acquittal. He will be tried again.

Helke is the highest official of the company upon which blame has been fixed and he now faces a possible sentence of two years in the federal prison and a fine of $10,000. He is 65 years of age.

Gerbracht can be sentenced to twelve years in prison with a maximum fine of $40,000. He is 63 years old.

INDIA'S NEXT VICEROY

Hardinge Is Named as Successor to Earl of Minto

London, June 11.—The appointment of Sir Charles Hardinge, permanent under secretary of state for foreign affairs, as viceroy of India, in succession to the Earl of Minto, is officially announced.

Mr. Hardinge has long been connected with the diplomatic service of England. He was born in 1858. In 1880 he entered the diplomatic service and rose steadily until he became secretary to the embassy at St. Petersburg in 1898. Here he remained until called to London as assistant secretary of the foreign office in 1903. He returned as ambassador to Russia the following year, and stayed until called back as permanent under secretary of the foreign office, the post he now holds.

RECORD IN GUNNERY

Target at Distance of 10,700 Yards Is Battered by Artillery

Washington, June 11.—What is believed to be a record at target practice with 10-inch disappearing rifles was made at Fort Rosecrans, Cal., when the gun crews of the One Hundred and Fifteenth company of Coast Artillery secured one hit out of four shots at a range of 10,700 yards on a target, 60 by 30 feet, towed at the rate of six miles an hour.

The time of firing the four shots, 3 minutes and 36 seconds, was considered exceptionally good. Although there was only a single hit, the efficiency is technically placed at 85 percent, because of the fact that the range was so long.

Western Union Company Indicted
Washington, June 11.—The federal grand jury returned an indictment against the Western Union Telegraph company, charging it with forty-two violations of the bucket shop law of March 1, 1909.

INDEPENDENCE IS DESTROYED

Finnish Diet Almost Wholly Shorn of Its Power

DUCHY A PART OF EMPIRE

Nearly Every Measure of Importance to People of Finland Placed Under the Jurisdiction of Russian Parliament—Finland Will Not Even Have Voice in Regard to Laws Made Applicable to Her

St. Petersburg, June 11.—The duma passed the Finnish bill, giving that body authority over the Finnish diet. The vote on the third reading was 184 to 23. As the victory of the government measure which has aroused intense bitterness in the duchy was announced, the Nationalists applauded vigorously. Then Vladimir Purshkevich, the president of the Reactionary "League of the Archangel Michael," sprang to his feet and triumphantly shouted: "Finis Finlandiae!"

How very far-reaching this measure is will be seen from the list of subjects enumerated in the bill as being under the jurisdiction of the Russian parliament. The latter will be authorized to fix the participation of Finland in the expenditure of the empire and to impose taxes for this purpose, thus depriving the Finnish people of one of the primary rights of a constitutionally governed country, the right to tax itself.

It will be empowered to determine the rights of Russian subjects in Finland, a provision clearly aiming at the introduction of Russian officialdom, to conflict with one of the fundamental principles of the Finnish constitution, that the country shall be governed by native authorities only.

It will be able to "constitute, in the interests of the empire, exceptions to the Finnish criminal law and law of procedure," and thus to interfere with the administration of justice.

It will be entitled to legislate on popular education, on the right of holding public meetings and of forming associations (a right expressly guaranteed by a fundamental law of so late a date as 1906), on the press (freedom of the press was also guaranteed in 1906), on the importation of foreign literature, on the customs relations between the two countries, on trade marks and copyrights, on the monetary system, on means of communication, on navigation and on the rights of aliens in Finland.

It is difficult to understand what questions will be left for the Finnish diet to deal with. Moreover, the bill contains a saving clause to the effect that amendments to the bill shall be made by the Russian legislature alone.

It is further provided that the Russian "ruling senate" shall interpret the laws thus enacted and decide "in accordance with general principles" (i. e., principles prevailing in Russia) doubts arising in regard to them. All laws passed "by means of general legislation" shall repeal without further notice all the provisions of the Finnish laws which are not in accord with them, and be absolutely binding, "independently of all conflicting provisions of the local laws."

"ETERNAL BEAUTY" WEDS

Liane De Pougy, Who Is Immensely Rich, Becomes Princess Ghika

Paris, June 11.—The "Eternal Beauty," Liane de Pougy, was married yesterday to Prince Georges Ghika.

Liane, in spite of her 47 years, is considered one of the handsomest women in the world today. She is one of the richest women of Europe. Her jewels, presented to her by kings, queens and admiring financiers, are worth a small fortune.

SHOES SENT BY MAIL

Cheaper Than Those by Freight From This Country to Mexico

Washington, June 11.—It is cheaper to transport and deliver shoes by United States mail from this country to Mexico than it is by freight, according to a report to the state department from United States Consul Letcher at Acapulco.

On shoes sent from St. Louis to Acapulco merchants there can save 3.74 cents on every pair if they are sent by mail instead of freight.

More Evidence of Bribery
Springfield, Ill., June 11.—State Attorney Burke received a confidential communication from a state senator, who volunteered to testify, if his name be suppressed, that he was offered $2500 if he would vote for William Lorimer for United States senator. The letter also gave names of others who would give testimony.

MRS. CASTLE MURDERED

Body of Woman Placed in Trunk and Sunk in Italian Lake

Como, Italy, June 11.—The badly mutilated body of a woman, believed to have been Mrs. H. N. Castle, who was Mary Crittenden Scott of San Jose, Cal., and New York, was found in a trunk submerged in a lake near the village of Moltrasio.

The police are of the belief that the woman was murdered, and have taken into custody a Russian named Constantine Ispoltoff, 50 years old.

New York, June 11.—Mary Scott Castle started New York on Aug. 3 last, by shooting William B. Craig as he stood on "Peacock alley" at the Waldorf-Astoria. But her revolver was pathetically small, the bullet was deflected by a fountain pen in Craig's pocket and he was unharmed.

The case never came to trial, and Mrs. Castle was discharged in September last after Craig declined to press the charge.

Thereafter Mrs. Castle dropped from public view until dispatches from the west told of the granting of a degree of divorce at Nome, Alaska, to her husband, Neville H. Castle, a San Francisco lawyer.

Mrs. Castle was a pretty woman and a brief stage career in New York was an incident in her life of excitement. This was after her marriage to Castle. She was 37 years old.

ON FREIGHTER FOR HEALTH

Wife of President Taft Takes a Trip on Lake Erie

Ashtabula, O., June 11.—Mrs. William H. Taft, wife of the president, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. James Laughlin, and another woman whose identity is not known, came quietly into Ashtabula and boarded the big freighter, James Laughlin, for a trip to Duluth and return.

The trip is taken in the hope that it will do Mrs. Taft much good, as her health has not been of the best lately. A great effort was made to keep the matter a secret.

MINISTER REFUSES TO TIE NUPTIAL KNOT

Brodie Duke and Fourth Bride-to-Be Are Disappointed

Washington, June 11.—Brodie L. Duke, one of the tobacco magnates of the country, came quietly to Washington to negotiate his fourth marriage, but after carefully laid plans for the ceremony he ran foul of a Presbyterian clergyman's aversion to divorce.

Duke had planned to be married yesterday afternoon to Miss Wynne Roschelle of Durham, N. C., where are situated his tobacco interests and his magnificent estate. Rev. Donald C. MacLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, had agreed to perform the ceremony, but later declined to do so.

When Duke procured the license he gave his residence and that of Miss Roschelle as Durham, N. C., his age as 62 years and hers as 28.

MISS LOVERING GETS $7500

It Represents a Year's Salary of the Late Congressman

Washington, June 11.—The general deficiency bill reported to the house by the appropriations committee carries the sum of $7500 payable to Miss Alice Lovering of Boston, daughter of the late Representative William C. Lovering. This represents a year's salary of the deceased member, which it is customary to pay to the nearest of kin upon the death of a representative.

The bill carries $5,735,673, a reduction of $2,198,558 from the estimates submitted by the various departments to meet deficiencies for the current year. The largest individual amounts covered in the bill are $1,030,601 for the naval establishment; $841,534 for the military establishment; $832,667 for the postal service, and $833,656 to pay judgments awarded by the court of claims.

TROLLEY BILL SIGNED

New Haven Road Gets Control of Western Massachusetts Lines

Boston, June 11.—Governor Diaper signed the Berkshire trolley bill, which practically gives the corporation the control of the electric railway transportation system in the western part of the state. This bill provides that the New Haven will spend $2,000,000 on the development of the trolley system.

The signing of the Berkshire bill by Governor Draper marks the end of a fight which has lasted for three years.

War Declared Impossible
Lima, Peru, June 11.—The government is disbanding the volunteers in the infantry, cavalry and artillery. One of the mediating ministers states that war between Peru and Ecuador is impossible.

Canada Wants a Treaty
Washington, June 11.—The Canadian government has indicated to the secretary of state its desire to take up as early as possible the subject of the negotiation of a trade treaty with the United States.

OUR OWN ACTS.

What man is there who does not laboriously, though all unconsciously, himself fashion the sorrow that is to be the pivot of his life?—Maeterlinck.

WHAT WILL ROOSEVELT DO?

Ex-President Roosevelt is due in New York next Saturday, June 18, and may possibly land on Friday, June 17.

On the following Monday the New York legislature will meet in special session, called by Governor Hughes for the purpose of considering a primary election bill and other matters recommended by the governor, which did not receive action at the regular session.

The question uppermost in New York political circles at this time is what Roosevelt is going to do about the matters before the legislature. He has always worked with, through and by means of the regular party organization, and the organization is openly opposed to Mr. Hughes. He has always been a reformer and the Hughes measures are reform measures.

There are three courses open to him in this matter, to take sides with the organization, to take sides with Governor Hughes or to work through the organization and bring it around to the Hughes view. A fourth course, that of silence is inconceivable. Which will he do?

BIRDSEYE VIEWS

So ex-Governor Napoleon B. Broward of Florida is going to the United States senate to succeed Mr. Tillamier. Mr. Broward will be a novelty in congress—an insurgent against party ring rule among the Democrats.

The Old York Transcript is shouting for Hinde for congressman.

Beginning July 1, the retail price of milk in Boston and its vicinity will be advanced 1 cent a quart. To the family trade this will mean a price of 9 cents a quart instead of the present price of 8 cents for the same quantity. This increase in price is a result of the recent milk strike.

Only a few weeks ago the supreme court of Louisiana ruled that an octoon does not come under the provisions of the concubinage law which prevents the marriage of whites and negroes. The school board of the city of Washington last week decided that a flax-haired child, as white in appearance as any purely white child in Washington, could not attend a school for white children because her great-grandfather's marriage with an octoon left a taint of negro blood in her veins. According to the Louisiana ruling an octoon is white, or at least is not a negro in the legal application of the term; the Washington decision makes a negro of the white child whose ancestry three generations back was infused with a one-eighth proportion of negro blood. Incidentally, the comparison does not lose interest from the fact that the more liberal decision was given in one of the states of the extreme south, where the negro is not held in especially high regard.

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES

Roosevelt and Third Term. The opinion widely prevails abroad that Mr. Roosevelt will re-enter the White House. It was voiced in Egypt when he first emerged from the jungle. It was expressed to his face in Rome. When he reached Paris he found the newspapers full of it, and in Berlin much was said on the subject. As Oxford on Tuesday it was introduced into the formal festivities attending his presence there. Officials, orators, newspapers, street crowds, all have received him as booked for further service in the presidency of the United States.

Mr. Roosevelt has had two terms, and publicly subscribed to the rule that retired him at the end of the second. Only sophistry supports the present movement in his name, and up to this time sophistry has never controlled him, or been found at the base of any of his achievements.—Washington Star.

ELKS CANNOT PARADE

They Will, However, Help Out in Many Other Ways

The Portsmouth lodge of Elks have notified the committee on the July 4 celebration that the organization will be unable to participate in the parade, owing to the laws of the lodge. The Elks, however, assure the committee that they are going to do a great deal in other ways, which will contribute to the success of the occasion.

FORMER CASHIER DEAD

C. E. Goodwin, Formerly of this City Dies at Salisbury

The many friends and acquaintances of Clarence E. Goodwin, who for several years was cashier for the American Express company in this city, will be pained to learn of his death, which occurred on Friday at Salisbury, Mass., after an illness of one year. He was a native of Newburyport, aged 31 years, and a member of the Odd Fellows of this city.

BURIAL AT NEW CASTLE

ONE WAY OUT

A Resident of Portsmouth Shows the Way

Only one way to cure a bad back. Liniment and plasters may relieve it.

They won't cure it. Backache means sick kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Portsmouth people prove this.

Read a case of it:

Joseph C. Pettigrew, 12 Islington Street, Portsmouth, N. H., says: "I can conscientiously recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to any one suffering from backache or kidney complaint. My first experience with this remedy took place about three years ago. At that time my back ached a great deal. I had dizzy spells and was bothered by a blurring of my sight. I finally decided that I had kidney trouble and procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Phillips's Drug Store. I had taken them but a short time before there was a great improvement in my condition."

Mrs. W. J. Gaynor Poses For First Snapshot Photograph

Mayor Gaynor of New York is being boomed by his friends as a possible candidate on the Democratic ticket for president. This suggestion is being attacked on all sides by W. R. Hearst. While Mayor Gaynor has of course been silent on the subject, his wife and daughter have been taking an active part in various social affairs in and around New York. This picture shows reading from left to right, Miss Edith Gaynor, Mrs. Gaynor and Miss Iris Mathilda Page. They were the guests of General Howe at Governors Island, New York. General Howe refused to permit Mrs. Gaynor to be photographed until she had given her consent. "I might as well get used to it now," Mrs. Gaynor said before posing for the photographer.

PORTSMOUTH'S ABSENT SONS AND DAUGHTERS

Send in Their Names on the Blank Printed in This Paper

The committee on the return of the Sons and Daughters are anxious that names of former Portsmouth people who are now residing in all parts of the country should be handed in as early as possible, and it is the intention of the committee that no native or former resident be overlooked.

The Herald, every day of late, has been handed several names by the people who are interested.

To help the committee on invitations and the public, this paper will print the following blank daily, which can be filled out and returned to this office, and we will see that it gets into the hands of the committee.

COMMANDER HILL VERDICT FOR TO NEW DUTY DEFENDANT

Commander Frank K. Hill, has been relieved from the command of the Marietta and ordered to the Naval War College at Newport. Lieutenant Commander J. F. Hines takes command of the Marietta, having been detached from the Naval Academy for the purpose. Commander Hill has been the subject of a court of inquiry on the findings of the inspection board that the Marietta came into port from the tropics in bad condition, and the results have not yet been made public. It is stated at the navy department, however, that his detachment from the ship is in no manner connected with that proceeding, but was made upon his own request.

BAD BASEBALL WEATHER

Baseball games called off today on account of weather—Portsmouth high school and Dover high school at Dover; U. S. S. Marietta and Newmarket Mills at Newmarket.

The Halcyon Club, composed of sailors of the battleship New Hampshire held a dancing assembly at Freeman's hall on Friday evening, and there was a good attendance and a jolly good time. Whitman's orchestra furnished music.

The case of Whitney vs Martin in the United States Circuit court was ended on Friday evening, when the jury at 7:15 returned a verdict for the defendant. Judge Lowell discharged the jury and adjourned court.

This has been one of the longest sessions of the United States court in this city for many years. It has lasted two weeks and the nearest approach to that was some years ago, when the court was in session here for a week. This present case was started last Tuesday and it was given to the jury at 5:30 Friday and they were out a little less than two hours.

CARD OF THANKS

The undersigned hereby take this means of conveying their heartfelt thanks to Miss White for her constant and untiring patience and kindness of our late lamented mother, also to Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Green and Miss Thatcher, and all others who in any way helped to lighten her suffering.

AGED CITIZEN DEAD

Benjamin Parker Passes Away at 90 Years.

Benjamin A. Parker, one of the oldest citizens of this city, passed away on Friday afternoon at his home on Cabot street. Mr. Parker suffered a shock on Monday and he has been in an unconscious condition ever since, but his wonderful constitution kept him alive until Friday afternoon.

Mr. Parker was born in Kittery, on Dec. 26, 1819, and as a young man he learned the carpenter's trade and followed that occupation for a great many years, being known as an exceptionally skillful workman. He came to this city about 65 years ago and moved to the house on Cabot street, where he died. He retired from active work some years ago.

Mr. Parker was one of the old line democrats, and he stuck to that party all of his life and was in his younger days an active worker.

He leaves a wife, five sons, George W. of this city, Abbot P. of Waltham; William H. of New York; A. Thurston, and John P. of this city, and three daughters, Mrs. Willard Snow of Lawrence, Mrs. William Ward of California and Mrs. Warrington Moulton of this city.

Decorate your auto for the parade with paper flowers. Samples shown at G. B. French Co.

ONE MOMENT PLEASE!

Electric Sign advertising is no longer an experiment. The most successful firms of world-wide reputation as well as the stores with whom we have done business give us facts that prove the advertising worth of Electric Signs to be far in excess of any method of advertising that has ever been devised for the amount expended.

Look for the most enterprising city of today and you will find one that uses Electric Signs on all available locations and where merchants appreciate the advertising value and use light. I am making and selling the best signs that can be produced, not the cheapest, but signs that will stand up and give service for years. Recent inventions have reduced the cost and also the cost of maintaining. Public spirit and civic pride demand well lighted business sections in our cities, why not do your part with a well lighted, artistic Electric Sign and increase your business as well.

I charge nothing for estimates or sketches and am always willing to explain details and serve your interests. Respectfully yours,

EVENTS OF ELIOT

Reception to New South Eliot Methodist Minister

Was Vice President Henry Wilson
Born in Eliot?

Eliot, Me., June 11.
The people of the South Eliot Methodist church tendered a reception to their new pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Fred C. Norcross, at the vestry on Thursday evening. The rooms were prettily decorated with tissue paper, paper bells, etc. In the recep-tional line with Mr. and Mrs. Norcross were Joseph B. Remick, chairman of the church trustees; Mrs. Ella A.
Cole, president of the social workers;
and Mrs. Asenath Wherren, president of the Epworth League. The ushers were A. W. Nowell, Harvey A. Knight and Eugene Paul. The decorating was in charge of a committee consisting of Mrs. Martha Remick and Mrs.
Florence Staples. Cake and cocoa were served under the direction of Mrs. Annie D. Spinney and Mrs. A.
W. Nowell, and the waiters were Mrs.
Minnie A. Cole, Gertrude Cole, Sarah
Tobey and Pauline Fernald. Elder George W. Brown of the Advent church was a guest of honor and brought the felicitations of the nearest neighboring church to the new pastor. Following the reception an entertainment program was given, with solos by Mrs. Henry I. Durgin and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nowell, reading by Mrs. Minnie A. Cole, duet by Misses Muriel and Laurel Spinney, and a solo, "The Holy City," by Mr. Nowell. The presentation of a beautiful bouquet of flowers to Mr. and Mrs.
Norcross was prettily done by Miss Ruth Remick. Mr. Norcross made some pleasing and appropriate remarks and an hour was passed in social enjoyment. This, the first social event of the church year, was a decided success, despite the unseemly weather.

The people of Eliot are hoping to produce evidence to cancel the New Hampshire claim that that state was the birthplace of Henry Wilson, vice president of the United States, who died in office in 1895. The history books and biographical dictionaries relate that the future famous man was born at Farmington, N. H., on February 16, 1812. His parents were very poor people named Colbath, and the baby was named Jeremiah. After a time, he learned the shoemaker's trade, and located in Massachusetts.
He put his youth behind him, and even changed his name in the effort to blot it out completely, and to this fact people here attribute his failure to correct the impression that his birthplace was Farmington. In connection with the coming town centennial in August there will be un-rollings of several tablets, marking historic spots, the tablets being contributed by a distinguished son of Eliot, ex-Governor John F. Hill of Augusta, the present chairman of the Republican national committee. If evidence is found to sustain the local belief that this town is the birthplace of Henry Wilson, the site of the long gone Colbath house will be one of the places so marked. Among the centennial committees is one on history, and historic spots, and of that committee Mr. F. Alphonso Staples, of South Eliot is informally serving as a special sub-committee on the matter of the Wilson birthplace. Mr. Staples hopes that some one may have a receipt or an old account book or other document containing the name of some member of the Colbath family in such a way as to locate that family in Eliot as late as February, 1812. He also hopes to find a copy of a newspaper containing a report of Henry Wilson's visit in the '70s to the Isles of Shoals, and says that paper will tell how the great man gazed at the mainland shore of Maine and said that there he first saw the light. Either such discovery he believes, would be sufficient evidence that the Eliot tradition is founded on fact. Mr. Staples says that the baby was born into the Colbath family in the winter, and that in the spring the family moved to Dover Point, and in the summer or autumn to Farmington. He has heard the story from a large number of the former old residents, men who claimed to have personal knowledge of the facts. He understands that the Farmington case is based on belief instead of evidence, and that the belief is based upon the residence of the family in that town when the future vice-president was a baby.
The buildings have been gone
many years on the former Colbath place, in the Sturgeon Creek neighborhood in this town and only a partially filled hole at a considerable distance from the highway remains to mark the spot around which there may yet rage an interstate dispute.

Oddly enough, the place is near the boyhood home of ex-Governor Hill and is now controlled by Mr. Hill's brother-in-law, Mr. William L. Hobbs.
Walter Staples is working for H. E.
Spinney.

Ray Spinney is working for W. E.
Paul and company at Portsmouth.
Rev. William B. Eldridge is to give an address on "The Minister's Spiritual Culture" at the meeting of Portland district Methodist ministers, western division to be held at South
Berwick on June 20.

Ralph Flynn and wife of Portsmouth spent Thursday with friends in South Eliot.

Forrest Leach has sold his speedy horse to a South Berwick party.

F. M. Wherren has installed a new engine in his motor boat.

Mrs. Ella Daniels of Beverly, Mass.
is working at H. M. Paul's while Mrs.
Ella Paul is with her daughter in New York.

I WONDER

I wonder if the rainy season of Central America has been transferred to New England?

I wonder when we ever had a high session of U. S. circuit court before Friday evening last?

I wonder why the kangaroo of the U. S. S. Wisconsin takes to Eliot woods every time he breaks his liberty?

I wonder if that goo-goo party at the depot every Sunday night is not the real thing?

I wonder if the surroundings of the South pond will ever be beautified, as once planned?

I wonder if the street division of the board of public works is shy for brick on the Congress street job?

I wonder where those Boston thieves are camping who got away from the police on the river near Kittery last summer?

I wonder if the Atlantic Shore line railway has forgotten that Portsmouth is on the map?

I wonder what became of the baseball clubs from the veteran firemen who were going to kill everything on the diamond?

I wonder what caused this sporting activity among the business men, which was strong enough to get them out on a baseball field?

I wonder if the contractor at the old high school is not putting some speed to the job?

I wonder if those sailors who tried to put that Daniel street laundry out of commission thought they were bombarding Santiago?

I wonder who will come forward with a name for that lake on Islington street near the corner of Pearl street?

I wonder who will be the first merchant to show the spirit and decorate for July 4?

I wonder if the fire department has put that life net in cold storage?

I wonder why the collier Leonidas is under repairs at Charleston, S. C., when her home port is Portsmouth?

I wonder if Billy Meehan will make that herring chowder for the Vaughan street fishing club?

I wonder if Cupid is not travelling a rapid pace in this city just now?

I wonder how Dover is getting along with its dry heat?
I wonder if the Door Steps Olmvation club of McDonough street will have a busy season?
I wonder how many of the clubs are planning for open house on July 4?
I wonder if that pop corn patch of a Christian Shore resident doesn't catch the eye of the farmer?
I wonder if there is anything to the rumor that the Boston and Maine railroad are to employ night flagmen at Green street and Vaughan street crossings?
I wonder what the city got in dog licenses this year?
I wonder if some of the Sunday booze joints in the North End should not be side tracked?
I wonder why some move is not made on the wharf property of Market street, before the summer season is on?
I wonder who substituted water in place of cider in the jug donated to the Burdock club?
I wonder where all the iron work in the fence on Jenkins avenue is going?
I wonder if Badger's Island is not the real place for a summer bungallow?
I wonder what the fire department has to say on parading on July 4?
I wonder if there are any more candidates for county solicitor to be troited out?

AN INJUNCTION RESTRAINING
FATHER OF BOY

Boston, June 11.—That ex-Senator James F. Shaw was prevented by an injunction, issued on application of his divorced wife, Mrs. Nettie E. Shaw from taking his 13-year-old son, Edward Shaw to New York Thursday for the purpose of going with him on a trip to England was learned Friday, when Judge Pressenden gave a hearing in the equity session of the superior court on the injunction proceedings. After Mr. Shaw had agreed to return the boy to the custody of the mother by July 25, he was granted leave to begin his interrupted journey. With his young son he left on the 1 o'clock train, intending to sail today.

Mrs. Shaw kissed her son, Edward, good-by in court. Apparently she felt her son's departure very keenly, and burst into tears.

Shaw took the boy from the St. Andrew's school at Concord Thursday morning, without leave of his mother or of the court. He intended to take the boy on the 6 o'clock train

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protruding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality. If requested, immediate relief and permanent cure assured. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write to day to Mrs. M. Summers, Box P, to New York that night but was prevented by the injunction which was served by Deputy Sheriff Silsby as he was boarding that train.

Mrs. Shaw had obtained the injunction from Judge Pressenden. It restrained Shaw from taking the boy out of the commonwealth and country. Her counsel, J. R. Anderson, viewed the trip as a violation of the divorce decree of Mrs. Shaw.

By the decree, each parent was to have the custody of the boy one-half of the school vacation period. Mrs. Shaw, from information she had received, feared the boy's father intended to remove him outside the country, where he would be beyond her reach, and not bring him back.

Shaw testified in court Friday that he had no such intentions. He said he was going to London on important business and wanted to take the boy with him. The boy told the court he would like to go. Judge Pressenden modified the decree in the divorce case, so it expressly provides that neither Shaw nor Mrs. Shaw should remove the boy outside the commonwealth, without leave of the court.

CEMETERY LAID OUT AT FORT FOSTER

First Time That There was a Demand For One in This Artillery District.

The recovery of the body of Guy Fellows the member of the 156th Company Coast Artillery, who was drowned at the New Castle bridge, made it necessary to lay out a military cemetery within this district, this being the first time it was required. It was accordingly laid out at Fort Foster, at Gerrish Island, but the body of Fellows was later claimed by his parents. It is a remarkable fact that in the years this company has been at the fort there has never been a death in the company from natural causes, and but a very few accidental deaths. This district ranks first in health of all of the districts of the department of the east and it speaks well for the healthy condition of New Castle.

FOUND DEAD IN BED

John Locke Tredick Died of Natural Causes at His Home in New Castle.

John Locke Tredick, a resident of New Castle was found dead in bed on Friday evening. Mr. Locke was down to the store during the afternoon and when he returned home he went up stairs and lay down for a nap and died from heart disease. Some hours after when his sister went to call him for supper, she found him dead, and he had been dead then some time.

Medical Referee W. D. Walker was called and he gave death as being due to natural causes and turned the body over to Undertaker Ham.

Mr. Tredick was 54 years of age and a shoemaker by trade. He leaves four daughters and a son.

STEAMSHIP COMPANY HAS GOVERNMENT PERMIT

To Extend Their Wharf Into the River as Allowed by Council.

The officers of the Southern Maine Steamship company received word on Friday that the War Department had granted their permission to extend their wharf out into the river for the purpose of giving a straight front. This permission was granted by the City Council and the matter referred back to the War Department and favorably acted upon. It is understood that the company will now proceed with the building of the wharf which has been torn up for some weeks.

THE COUNTRY CLUB

Golf Tournament This Afternoon, Tennis Next Week.

There will be a two ball Scotch fore-some golf tournament at the Country Club this afternoon. It will be medal play and the usual handicaps will apply.

Next week the first tennis tournament will be started at the club and it is expected that there will be a good entry as there has been a great interest in this sport this season at the club.

TO TRAIN SCHLOSSBERG

"Mike Twin" Sullivan, the welter weight champion of the country, accompanied by Prof. Joe Allen, a well known boxer and instructor, arrived here on Friday evening, and today will start training Phil Schlossberg, the champion heavy weight of the United States navy, now attached to the U. S. S. New Hampshire.

Schlossberg will go against McKenney at the Armory A. A. in Boston on Tuesday evening, and he is to have the finishing touches to his training applied by these two clever men. They will train Schlossberg at the battleship, and will start tomorrow morning with road work from the yard.

An effort is being made to have Sullivan and his sparring partner give a six round exhibition in this city and it may be held Monday evening.

SHIPBUILDING PLANT AT MONTREAL

Plans Submitted for Plant Which Will Cost $2,500,000.

Vickers Sons and Maxim have filed with the Canadian Government plans for a two and a half million dollar ship building and repairing plant at Montreal. The plans show a floating dock with a lift of 27,500 tons capable of handling boats up to 700 feet a special repair berth and three ship-building ships. The firm expects to build many of the vessels for the new Canadian navy. Sir Hiram Maxim will arrive at New York by the Mauretania this week with working plans for the enterprise.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Trustees and Managers of the Home for Aged Women, desire to gratefully acknowledge the generous donation of ninety-one dollars from the parishioners of the Unitarian church.

The sum was contributed by a large number of the friends of the Home, thereby manifesting their interest in behalf of the aged ladies, who so keenly appreciate the comforts of their home.

Thanks are due to those who gave so freely of their time and labor in bringing about such a bountiful gift and to those who cheerfully responded to solicitations.

MARINE CORPS BASE AT NEW LONDON

The advanced base of the marine corps will be established at New London, Conn. It was contemplated to locate this important post at Philadelphia, but it was found that the League Island Navy Yard was not in readiness. New London thus gets the prize, although it is stated that the order is only temporary in character.

Free Receipt for Weak Men
Gentleman Will Send It Confidentially, Free and Sealed, to very Weak and Unable Man Who Writes for It.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, falling memory, and all the ills that attend a weak and nervous man. I think I owe it to my fellow man to send him a copy in confidence, so that any man, anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop dragging himself with painful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest acting, restorative, rebuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home, quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 4724 Luck Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid receipt, in a plain ordinary sealed envelope, free of charge.

ory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So, I have determined to send a copy of the prescription, free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope, to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men, and I am convinced it is the surest acting combination for the cure of debilitated manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send him a copy in confidence, so that any man, anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop dragging himself with painful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest acting, restorative, rebuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home, quietly and quickly. ## RYE

Children's Night in the Grange on Friday

Children's Sunday in the Churches
Tomorrow

Rye, June 11.
Sunday, June 12, is children's Sunday at the churches and it will be observed by appropriate exercises.

Mrs. Emma Moulton will leave on Monday for New York to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Philbrick. The Boys' club will hold their regular meeting tonight at the club rooms.

The regular meeting of Seaside Council, No. 20, Junior Order United American Mechanics, will be held on Monday evening, June 13. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

A business meeting of the Jenness Beach Improvement association was held on Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. Finlayson.

Children's night was observed Friday evening at a regular meeting of Rye Grange, which was well attended. Although the weather was unfavorable it did not dampen the ardor of the children who presented an excellent program which was much enjoyed by those present. At the close of the meeting the refreshment committee, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Marston and Miss Nora Shapley served delicious strawberries, ice cream, cake and coffee.

KEEP OPEN HOUSE
Every Organization That Can Do So
Should Show the Spirit on July 4

It is very important that the several clubs and other organizations of the city keep an open house on July 4. Many have already realized this, and have planned to do so. This is a feature that will greatly help, not only the occasion, but show to the visitors the hospitality for which Portsmouth is noted, as is as strong as ever.

A FLAG DAY OBSERVANCE

The Helen Seavey Quilting Party will have the customary flag day observance on June 14.

The meeting will be devoted to a discussion of national and state flowers.

Mrs. W. L. Hill will present a paper advocating the selection of a member of the rose family as the New Hampshire state flower, and Mrs. O. L. Frisbee a paper urging the selection of the goldenrod as the national flower.

Plans will be discussed for the participation of the party in the parade on the occasion of the return of the city's sons and daughters on July 4.

The Scrap Book

Caught Him Both Ways.

While Chauncey Olcott was chatting with a friend on Broadway, New York, one day a young man whom he had noticed in conversation with two other men in front of a theater left his companions and, crossing the street, said:

"I beg your pardon, but are you Chauncey Olcott?"

"No," responded the comedian; "I'm his brother."

"Then I lose my bet," exclaimed the stranger, darting in front of a car and rejecting his companions.

Mr. Olcott saw him hand one of the men a bill, and not wishing the stranger to lose his money, he started in pursuit to explain. But there was a rush of traffic at that moment and he lost sight of them.

An hour or so later Mr. Olcott was walking up Broadway when the same young man approached him with another man.

"Are you Chauncey Olcott?" asked the man.

"Yes, I am, and I want to say that when I told you a little while ago I was not I didn't know you had a bet on it."

"Well, I'll be blowed!" exclaimed the stranger as he turned disgustedly away. "That's two bets I've lost on you, this afternoon. I just bet Jim here a five spot that you weren't Chauncey Olcott, and I thought I had a clinch."

It is a mystery of the unknown. That fascination us. We are children still. Wayward and whimsical. With one hand we cling

To the familiar things we call our own. At the same time, the restless of will. Groping in the dark for what the day will bring.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Honestly. I was sitting at my desk when black Spio, who sometimes waits on me at my restaurant, entered my office.

"What can I do for you, Sam?" I asked.

"Ah got a chance to change mah situation, Misses Chahk," he said. "Yo kin seh a good wud fo' me, can't yo?"

"Of course," I hesitated, "you're a good waiter, Sam, but I don't know anything specially about your honesty."

"Well, tell 'em dat an' say yo' thinks Ah'm honest. Dat'll be enough."

So I promised I would.

"Thank yo', thank yo', Misses Chahk," he said, with a deep bow. "When yo' come over tomorrow sh at mah table, 'n' Ah'll give yo' a sho' check."—Success Magazine.

The Break in the Fog. There had been half a dozen stories of thick fog, but Captain Mansfield had waited his turn with patience. It came at last, and the other captains turned their weather beaten faces to ward him with an expression of cheer and credulity.

"'Twas told me of a house setting pretty high the shore along halfway down the coast of Maine," said Captain Mansfield. "I could show you the house if it came right. It has a curious lopsided portico on it, and one day I asked the man that lives there why it happened to be built that queer shape."

"Well," says he, "the talk is that the man who lived there first had a cousin that was an architect up Boston way, and one time the feller was down here in a terrible foggy spell, and he was figuring out to his cousin how he could build a little portico of such and such dimensions, measuring out into the fog with his rule, and so on."

"'Twas in the late afternoon. He went off next day by train. The fog still held, and along in the morning the man that lived here happened to notice that the marks of the rule on the fog were still plain, so as he couldn't go a-dashin he took some lumber and built the foundations of this portico. That queer fog that makes it lopsided is where the wind bore in on the fog, they say, and beat the rule marks in."

Extra Good Care. Some years ago the captain of one of his British majesty's ships while in quarantine at Auckland, New Zealand, owing to one slight case of fever, received some valuable carrier pigeons. He gave his colored servant strict orders to take great care of them. A few days afterward the captain, wishing to make use of the birds, inquired of his servant if he had taken care of them. "Oh, yes," replied he, "me hab taken berry great care of dem. Day by day I fly away 'cause I hab clipped dem wings!"

Friends in Both Places. Mark Twain, the humorist, had friends in Philadelphia, and one of them, a woman who was his business at a dinner on his last visit to that city, tells the following story:

"We were talking about the future life and the various kinds of reward and punishment that might be expected in the next world," she said, "and Mr. Clemens took no part in the discussion. After a few moments of conversation on the part of all the other guests and complete silence from the humorist the woman sitting next to him turned to him and said:

"Well, Mr. Clemens, aren't you going to tell us what you think about future punishment and reward?"

"I must ask you to excuse me, madam," he replied. "You see, I have friends in both places."

Free Finland. Finland recently rejected the measure by which Russia proposed to extend her authority over the grand duchy. More than once of late—that is, since troubles began to accumulate for the czar—the Finns have asserted their traditional independence, and on every occasion the czar ended by trying to place the will of the Russian parliament above that of the Finnish diet in "matters of general and imperial interest" is but another and more subtle way of saying that the will of Finland must not clash with the will of the czar, who is the grand duke.

Finland is more progressive than Russia and more highly civilized. Its inhabitants are not Russians and are not of the same religious faith. Its aspiration for liberty is not a mere political sentiment, but is based on rights which every czar of the last hundred years has sworn to respect. Russia does not like Finland free, but cannot help herself when other troubles harass the throne.

The probability is that George will imitate Edward and content himself with the role of the constitutional king. Not otherwise can he hope to save the throne from the dangers which menaced it in the reign of the last George.

Some day it will come to be recognized that it is as great a disgrace to a community to acquiesce in the prevalence of consumption as it would be to accept the medieval plague as an unavoidable visitation of Providence.

In order to lessen the danger of rabies Chicago will place 1,000 drinking vessels for dogs in different parts of the city, a scheme worth imitating by every town, village and hamlet in the land.

WESTERN UNION

INDICTED BY FEDERAL GRAND JURY

Washington, June 11.—The Federal grand jury Friday returned an indictment against the Western Union Telegraph Company, charging it with forty-two violations of the bucketshop law of March 1, 1909.

The claim is made that the Western Union company, by means of a telegraph wire and a ticker aided and abetted the conduct of a bucketshop in the District of Columbia. The forty-two counts in the indictment vary only in the date on which the alleged violations are said to have occurred.

A collective conspiracy indictment was returned against the same individuals in which Joseph F. Gatins is indicted in his proper name. A previous indictment filed April 2 had called him Joseph E. Gatins, and he filed a plea in abatement, to offset which the corrected indictment was filed. Gatins also tried to have the court instruct the grand jury in the hope of forestalling this new indictment, but was unsuccessful. The court held that such proceeding would open up an undesirable practice in this jurisdiction.

An additional indictment charging the conduct of a bucketshop in the District was filed today against William B. Price, Virgil P. Randolph, Henry M. Randolph, Charles T. Moorhead, Edward Weldon, James A. Anderson, all of Baltimore, Md.; Thomas H. Campbell of Philadelphia, Joseph F. Gatins of New York, Edward E. Taylor and John P. Allberger of Philadelphia.

A NEW RECORD

WITH BIG GUNS

Washington, June 11.—What is believed to be a record at target practice with 10-inch disappearing rifles was made Thursday at Fort Rosecrans, Cal., when the gun crews of the 15th Company of Coast Artillery secured one hit out of four shots at a range of 10,700 yards on a target, 60

by 30 feet, towed at the rate of six miles an hour. The time of firing the four shots, 2 minutes and 30 seconds, was considered exceptionally good. Although there was only a single hit, the efficiency is technically placed at 95 per cent, because of the fact that the range was so long.

BOSTON BOY A NAVAL HERO

James Dever Receives High Commendation for Saving Life of Fellow Sailor.

James Dever, a Boston lad, twenty years of age, who has been in the army nearly three years, has been personally commended by the Secretary of the Navy for his gallantry in jumping overboard from the battleship Mississippi and saving the life of a drowning comrade, Kramer, by name. The commanding officer of the vessel reported the circumstances of the case to the navy department as follows:

"While the Mississippi was at anchor off Hampton Roads, a tube blew out in the boiler of a steam launch. Kramer, to prevent being scalded, jumped overboard in a choppy sea and strong tide way and not being able to swim was helpless in the water. Dever seeing him struggling to keep afloat jumped overboard from the quarterdeck, rescued him, and brought him alongside. Kramer was nearly exhausted.

WANTS INDICTION

AGAINST OWLS

Boston, June 11.—Atty. Gen. Malone at the request of Insurance Commissioner Hardison brought suit in the supreme court Friday against the Order of Owls whose home nest is in South Bend, Ind., and which has local nests in Massachusetts, for an injunction to restrain them from transacting business in this commonwealth.

The order is claimed to be doing business here without the permission of the insurance commissioners. Judge Sherman issued an order returnable June 21.

TEN SHOTS WITHOUT REAIMING

English Inventor Claims Much for New Recoil Device.

The British army is testing a recoil device which, it is said, enables a gun to be fired ten times consecutively without reaiming. It consists of cylindrical chambers containing a patent liquid and air. The experiments have been made with a 14.3 gun which will shortly be delivered to the War Office, but the invention is apparently applicable to all types of guns, including the largest. It is said that it increases steadiness and accuracy five out of ten shots practically going through the same hole in the target.

Call for Five on the Yard Today

Changes of the Marine Officers

A Local Officer is Married at Annapolis

Chief Carpenter Has Been Detached from This Yard

Portsmouth Officer Wedded at Annapolis

The wedding of Lieut. John Margston, U. S. M. C., stationed at the naval prison here, and Miss Elizabeth Barroll Worthington of Annapolis, occurred on Wednesday last at St. Anne's church in that town.

Major Henry Leonard, commanding the naval prison, was among the guests at the ceremonies.

Goes to Boston Yard

Chief Carpenter W. H. Squire has been detached from the department of yards and docks at this yard and ordered to Boston yard for observation.

Outside Work Suspended

Owing to the weather conditions all outside work was suspended today.

Orders in Marine Corps

Lieut. Col. T. P. Kane, U. S. M. C., commanding the barracks marine guard has been granted a month's absence. Lieut. T. D. Barber has been appointed judge advocate of the general court martial board. Lieut. Roland Hoyt has been relieved from the board and Lieut. Fortson appointed in his place.

Say the Captain Should Be a Sport

The Yeast Cake crew are trying to prevail upon the captain that more fame could be added to his flagship if he would conduct a few moonlight trips down the harbor, with dancing on the promenade deck.

Navy Band Assists Army

The naval band went to New Castle on Thursday, where they assisted the army in the funeral services of the late Guy Fellows of 156th company of coast artillery, whose funeral was with full military honors.

A Call in Copper Shop

Two coppersmiths, first class, two coppersmiths' helpers, and moulder's helper made up the list of those called for work today.

Will See How They Are Progressing

The regular summer examination of the yard apprentices will take place on Monday next.

Murphy Back on the Berth Deck

There is much rejoicing in the crew of the U. S. S. Wisconsin in the return of the kangaroo, who was captured in his hike in Elliot.

Sailors to Shoot at Wakefield

A detachment of sailors from the U. S. S. New Hampshire will leave on Monday for the rifle range at Wakefield, where they will engage at target practice for two weeks.

Looking Up the Lumber

Some of the lumber needed for the building of the wooden coal barges at the yard is being collected at other yards and sent to this station for the work.

CONTRACTOR DENIES CHARGE

Repairs on Old High School Causing a Stir Among Labor Men

The Central Labor Union is said to have taken objections to the work of remodeling the old high school and will appoint a committee to consult with the contractor, E. N. McNabb and company, relative to non-union labor which, it is claimed, is employed there.

The union drafted resolutions which will be forwarded to the city council to the effect that the city should stand foremost for fair labor and petitioning that no further city contracts be awarded unless it is stipulated that none but union laborers be employed.

The contractor, today, when seen relative to the report, stated that he had none other than union men employed and that every man received union wages as far as he knew.

He strongly denies that there is any unfair labor connected with the job, and says he welcomes any investigation on the part of any organization.

ROUNDHOUSE MEN GET MORE PAY

The employees of the Boston and Maine railroad round house and repair shop here were made happy on Friday with an increase of pay which affects the following:

Machinists got 14 per cent. increase, laborers 12 per cent. machinists' helpers and wipers 12 per cent., watchmen 12 per cent.

The increase reaches everybody but the hostlers who are, it is understood affiliated with locomotive firemen, and some advance for them is later expected.

A SAD CASE

Mother and Five Children in Hard Circumstances

A family in very destitute circumstances have been taken care of by the county commissioners. The case was really a sad one, when it is known that a mother with five small children one of them a baby, were suffering for food.

They left early this morning.

POLICE COURT

John Gillis, for begging and Fred Andrews drunk, were discharged in police court today on agreement to leave the city.

SAILOR FROM THE NEW HAMPSHIRE

Demands That Captain of New York Boat Put Passengers Ashore

E. T. Phair, a ship's cook on the U. S. S. New Hampshire, was one of the passengers on the steamship Harvard, who led a delegation and demanded that the captain put the passengers ashore by a tug on Friday, while the steamer tossed and pitched in the rough sea at Point Allerton.

The Harvard was bound for New York from Boston, and, while at anchor waiting for a chance to move, the passengers became panic stricken as the waves broke over her decks and flooded the state rooms.

Phair had 72 hours' leave in which to make a trip to New York on naval business and get back to the yard. If he could be in New York at 9 o'clock today he could make his time, but later than that would miss connections. He found that Captain Thompson's best guess was that to make New York at noon today.

Backed by other passengers, Phair went to the captain and demanded to be set ashore. For some time, the passengers say, Capt. Thompson thought the matter over before giving his consent, but finally, he got busy with the wireless apparatus and got word back from his company that a tug would be sent out and all who wished might go ashore.

CHAPMAN—SOMERBY

Paul Goddard Chapman of New York city and Miss Mabel Shaw Somerby were married at noon today, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Somerby No. 24 Middle street by Rev. Dr. Lucius H. Thayer.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Samuel Dercher, and the groom was accompanied by Mr. Dercher.

Only a few relatives and intimate friends were present.

The groom is a manufacturer's agent in New York city. The bride is a popular young woman with many friends whose love and best wishes go with her to her new home in another state.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will reside in Brooklyn.

Genuine Holeproof Sox Now 25 Cents a Pair

You can now buy a box of six pairs of Holeproof Sox—formerly $2.00—for $1.50

Those who have always paid 25 cents a pair for inferior sox can now have the best at this price. Holeproof are the original guaranteed sox—the first that were sold under a 6 months guarantee. The makers pay the top market price for their yarn—they buy only the finest and softest Egyptian and Sea Island cotton.

But the top market price is now less than it was, so the makers are now saving you 50 cents on six pairs. Yet you get the same sox as before.

Come in and see what Holeproof are like. Judge if you want the genuine. Decide if any other brand is one-half so good. Learn what you save and gain when you wear Holeproof.

DOES THE PRESTON ACT ALLOW THIS?

It is understood that brewers at Worcester, Mass., are shipping carload lots to this city when they are reshipped to Lynn, Salem, and other Massachusetts cities and towns. Local brewers are greatly interested in this and wonder how it can be done under the Preston law. It is stated that the Lynn express was delayed ten or twelve minutes one day recently by this.
